Evaluation of the Chief

The board of commissioners shall evaluate the performance of the chief at least once per year. Such evaluation shall occur prior to December 1 of each year and may serve for the purpose of goal- setting and improved performance and relationships between the chief and the board. Informal evaluation sessions may occur at the request of the chief or the chairman of the board. The basis for evaluation shall be the chief's position description and accomplishment of annual objectives established by the board of commissioners.
